Detailed itinerary · Aerial

DAY 01 | Lucknow – Nepalgunj

Meet the Shivalaya representative at the Lucknow reporting point agreed in your confirmation. Travel with the joining group to Nepalgunj and settle into the assigned hotel. The evening briefing explains the aerial darshan arrangements, passenger identification, airport transfer, window-seat allocation and weather-related changes. This short Yatra remains on the Nepal side; it is not a road entry into Tibet.

Journey: Group road transfer
Meals: As stated in the written aerial package meal plan
Overnight: Nepalgunj

Plan ahead: Confirm the reporting time and the exact airport or railway-station meeting point before arranging your arrival.

DAY 02 | Aerial Kailash Door Darshan

Transfer to the airport for the confirmed aerial Kailash Door Darshan flight. A window seat is included on the confirmed operating departure so that each traveller has the agreed viewing position. The experience is a distant aerial darshan: it does not include landing at Mount Kailash, a visit to the Manasarovar shore or the walking Parikrama. Return to Nepalgunj after the flight. Visibility, departure time and the authorised flight path depend on operating conditions.

Journey: Airport transfers and scenic flight
Meals: As stated in the written aerial package meal plan
Overnight: Nepalgunj

Plan ahead: A guaranteed window seat is not a guarantee of a clear mountain view. The booking confirmation must state the weather-change and refund arrangements.

DAY 03 | Nepalgunj – Lucknow

After the hotel check-out, travel back with the group to the agreed Lucknow drop-off point. Keep your onward tickets consistent with the return timing advised by the operations team. An overnight delay or rescheduled flight may change the ground transfer. The stated two-night package ends with the confirmed Lucknow drop-off; extra services beyond the accepted arrangement are quoted separately.

Journey: Group road transfer
Meals: As stated in the written aerial package meal plan
Overnight: Yatra ends in Lucknow

Plan ahead: See the monthly fixed-departure calendar and group-confirmation notice on page 10.

Documents, visa & photograph preparation

Passport copies

Clear colour copy of the identity page, relevant information pages and two blank visa pages. Check name spelling and validity against the application checklist.

Visa photograph

Recent colour passport photograph taken within the last six months, white or near-white background, face visible. Typical China paper-photo size: 33 mm wide × 48 mm high; use the exact current specification confirmed for your application.

Traveller information form

Personal and contact details matching the passport; employment, education, family and travel history only where the current official application requires them.

Residence and previous visas

Proof of lawful stay/residence when applying outside the country of citizenship, plus previous China visa/passport details where requested.

Emergency and medical planning

A non-travelling emergency contact, agreed dietary requirements, insurance details and any fitness documentation requested for the trip. Discuss medical information privately.

Secure submission

Do not send passport scans, bank details or medical records through the public enquiry form. Our team gives the verified private submission channel and any original-passport handling instructions after enquiry.

How your booking is managed

01 Speak with your Kailash expert

Choose the route, reporting city, approximate group size and proposed dates. Provide passport nationality and residence separately; avoid sending sensitive documents with the first public enquiry.

02 Review a written quotation

Receive the duration, included flight and road sectors, room-sharing basis, meal schedule, complete currency breakdown and excluded costs. Confirm that the selected package ends in the city you need.

03 Agree the booking instalment

Ask about starting with INR 5,000 per person. Obtain written confirmation of acceptance, remaining instalments, balance deadline, any charges and cancellation/refund terms. It is not the full price or an advertised recurring monthly repayment.

04 Receive a receipt and booking reference

After an accepted payment, use the booking reference for correspondence. A receipt records payment; permits, flights and group operation still have their own confirmation steps.

05 Complete the document check

Use the team’s verified private submission channel for passport copies, photographs and the required form. Confirm original-passport handling, deadlines and nationality-specific visa appointments before sending originals.

06 Confirm the travel arrangements

Check issued approvals, route access, flight sectors, joining instructions, baggage limits, hotel/sharing plan and the emergency contact process. Read the final day-wise itinerary and limitations before departure.

Important limitations & booking terms

Booking and instalments

The INR 5,000 starting payment is an initial instalment enquiry, not the total Yatra price or a guaranteed monthly EMI. Deposit acceptance, eligibility, payment frequency, interest/fees if any, refund rules and final balance date must be agreed in writing. A payment does not itself guarantee permits, seats or departure.

Group departure and seats

The fixed departure requires a minimum operating group of 25 passengers. A window seat is included on the confirmed flight; exact date, aircraft and passenger arrangements must be confirmed in writing.

Weather and visibility

Flight operations and mountain visibility depend on weather, clearance and airline decisions. A window seat is not a promise of seeing Mount Kailash. The written terms must explain cancellation, rescheduling, extra nights and any applicable refund.

Identification and entry

This package is for Indian nationals, with Lucknow pick-up and return via Nepalgunj. The team confirms accepted India–Nepal travel identification and airline passenger details. It is not a Tibet-entry package.

Accommodation, meals and service scope

Two planned nights are in Nepalgunj. Confirm the hotel/sharing basis, exact meal plan, road transfers and flight inclusions in the written booking. There is no lake-shore visit or ground Kailash Parikrama.

Health, insurance and assistance

Discuss any personal medical or mobility needs before booking and confirm suitable insurance. Extra accommodation, personal treatment and separate transfers are not automatically included.

Cancellation, early return and rights

A written schedule covering cancellation, supplier charges, refunds, early return and operator changes must be accepted before payment. This overview does not waive any rights or liabilities that cannot lawfully be excluded.

Frequently asked questions

Can I start booking with INR 5,000 per person?

Ask about an INR 5,000 starting instalment for your Kailash Yatra 2027 booking. This is not the full tour price or a guaranteed recurring monthly EMI. The accepted payment schedule, balance deadline, any finance charges and refund conditions are confirmed before a payment is taken.

What is included in the 3-day aerial Kailash Door Darshan?

The Indian-national group-joining offer is INR 65,000 nett per person from Lucknow, with two planned nights and a guaranteed window seat on the confirmed aerial flight. The operating group minimum is 25. It does not include a Tibet ground visit, lake-shore visit or Parikrama, and mountain visibility depends on conditions.

Where should I send passport copies and visa photographs?

First ask the assigned Shivalaya contact for the verified private submission method and the correct application checklist. Do not enter passport numbers, upload scans or disclose medical records in the public enquiry form. Original passports should be handed over or couriered only under specific written instructions.
